Day of Education

Harleysville Books offer PAED ACT 48 Approved workshops to educators. The workshops provide practical skills and information that promote professional growth.

Participants will receive a 20% discount on all books presented during our workshops.

Programs are presented by the complimentary team of Nadeen McShane (bringing over 30 years of professional experience as an educator) and the book resources of Shelly Plumb (owner of Harleysville Books).

Author Presentors

The Day of Education will include presentations from three well known authors and illustrators.

Peter Catalanotto

Peter is the author and illustrator of several picture books for children and is know for his brilliant and powerful illustrations. His work includes Matthew A.B.C., Emily's Art and Ivan the Terrier.

David Lubar

David Lubar has a diverse background writing video games and novels for children and young adults. His work includes My Rotten Life, Hidden Talents and Curse of the Campfire Weenies.

Kay Winters

Kay Winters is best known for her poetry and historical picture books for children. Her most recent work includes Colonial Voices: Hear Them Speak, Abe Lincoln: The Book Who Loved Books and My Teacher for President.

Program Schedule

All of our workshops are approved by PAED. Participants will earn 6 credit hours of ACT 48 credits with each class. The cost is $40 per person (this includes lunch).

If you need to cancel your registration, your spot must be filled before we can refund your money. Refunds and credits will not be issued in the case of absence.

Our Day of Education will include presentations from 3 authors and illustrators and break out sessions.
